Dear Sirs,

As I am a political prisoner detained at Shanghai Gaol, Foreign Section, I have no right to attend any court or police proceedings. I beg the Shanghai authorities to take notice of this letter.

Charge my wife Anna Rosenbaum with missapropriation of two large trunks containing various local made silver ware which I have been authorized to buy for a Spanish merchant Pablo Gardiosabal, and as the war began, I had no opportunity of sending the trunks with the silver to the owner, they have been left in my apartement, occupied at present time by my wife, as I have been informed that the trunks were removed from the apartement, I beg the authorities to recover the above mentioned and hand it over to the man which I have given my power of attorney.

My wife is making rediculous charges against me, and she filed a divorce proceedings against me I beg to postpone all proceedings until my release, as I have turned over to my wife all the cash which I possesed and have left a sum of U.S. Dollars 4,500.- (four thousand and five hundred) at my apartement which she has taken, and refuse to admit.

I beg you to recover all my personal belongings from her and hand it over to my trusty as I consider her not fit for holding them.
